

The International Webinar hosted by the NPA

Live broadcast and on-demand video
With simultaneous interpretation (Japanese – English)

For Building the APS (Australian Public Service) to be an employer of choice

~How the Australian Government strengthen the attractiveness of the APS~

The National Personnel Authority will host a webinar on "For Building the APS to be an employer of choice" by inviting speakers from the Australian Public Service Commission.

"What value can be gained/attained through the employment by the APS?" "What career pathways are there into the APS?" What will the speakers answer to these questions? How does the Australian Government make their public service more attractive so that it can attract and retain talented people? We will find clearer understanding on their strategies and measures.

1. Live broadcast: February 21 2024, 2:00pm ~ 3:00pm (JST)
2. Speakers (Australian Public Service Commission)
Shannon Owen (Acting Director Future of Work Taskforce)
Alysum Doak (Assistant Director Workforce Research and Analysis)
Adam Smith (Acting Director Career Pathways)
3. For registration, please fill the form at the URL below.

<https://jinji.netseminar.jp/>

